

Object direct

objects direct are the people or things in a sentence which receive the action of the verb. To find the object direct in a sentence, ask the question Who? or What?

French direct object pronouns are placed in front of the verb.

- I'm eating it.
Je le mange.

He sees her.
Il la voit.

I love you.
Je t'aime.

You love me.
Tu m'aimes.

Object indirect

- Indirect objects are the people or things in a sentence to or for whom/what the action of the verb occur
- I'm talking to Pierre.
Je parle à Pierre.
- To whom am I talking? To Pierre.

He buys books for the students
Il achète des livres pour les étudiants.
- For whom does he buy books?
- For the students.

The French indirect object pronouns a

- me / m' me
- te / t' you
- lui him, her
- nous us
- vous you
- leur them

I see Pierre.

Je vois Pierre.

Who do I see? Pierre.

I'm eating the bread

Je mange le pain.

What am I eating? - Bread

Les pronoms objets directs me / m'

me

te / t'

you

le / l'

him, it

la / l'

her, it

nous

us

vous

you

les

them

I'm talking to him.
Je lui parle.

He buys books for them.
Il leur achète des livres.

I'm giving the bread to you.
Je vous donne le pain.

She wrote to me.
Elle m'a écrit.

Merci

a tout a l'heure

Au revoir

<https://www.facebook.com/GautamKumar61>

Gautam Singh , Hospitality Trainer , 07830294949